September 21-25, 2018

Thank you for your interest in submitting an abstract for consideration at the Nurse Anesthesia Annual Congress on September 21-25, 2018 at the Hynes Convention in Boston, Massachusetts.

Please review the following information before submitting your abstract:

- AANA will accept up to three (3) abstracts per presenter.
- Education sessions will be approximately 15-60 minutes in length, including time for participant question and answer. Identify the approximate presentation time on your abstract application.

Submission Deadlines and Notifications

Submission Deadline: January 12, 2018 at 11:59pm CT.

Grading Deadline: February 9, 2018. All submissions will be evaluated and graded by the Professional Development Committee and invited graders.

Notification Deadline: All presenters will be notified of their acceptance status no later than February 9, 2018.

The AANA is a non-profit organization, and therefore speaker honoraria and/or fees are limited. The Annual Congress is designed to provide a variety of educational topics that will develop the maximum effectiveness of CRNAs in their roles as healthcare providers in diverse settings across the nation. Attended by over 2,500 CRNAs, it is an excellent opportunity to present your best practices and research to your peers and nurse anesthesia students!

The goals of the Annual Congress are as follows:

1. Provide an organized learning experience that augments the knowledge and skills of the CRNA in various settings.
2. Serve as a forum where research pertinent to the specialty of nurse anesthesia can be presented.
3. Familiarize nurse anesthetists with the latest medical equipment, technology, and pharmacological products.
4. Provide AANA members with an opportunity to participate in the business of the AANA.
5. Facilitate interaction and networking between participants on a professional and social level.

Conflict of Interest

The potential for conflicts of interest exists when an individual has the ability to control or influence the content of an educational activity and has a financial relationship with a commercial interest,* the products or services of which are pertinent to the content of the educational activity. The Nurse Planner is responsible for evaluating the presence or absence of conflicts of interest and resolving any identified actual or potential conflicts of interest during the planning and implementation phases of an educational activity. If the Nurse Planner has an actual or potential conflict of interest, he or she should recuse himself or herself from the role as Nurse Planner for the educational activity.

Commercial interest, as defined by ANCC, is any entity producing, marketing, reselling, or distributing healthcare goods or services consumed by or used on patients, or an entity that is owned or controlled by an entity that produces, markets, resells, or distributes healthcare goods or services consumed by or used on patients. (Please reference content integrity document for further clarity <http://www.nursecredentialing.org/Accreditation-CEContentIntegrity.pdf>)

All individuals who have the ability to control or influence the content of an educational activity must disclose all relevant relationships with any commercial interest, including but not limited to members of the Planning Committee, speakers, presenters, authors, and/or content reviewers. Relevant relationships must be disclosed to the learners during the time when the relationship is in effect and for 12 months afterward. All information disclosed must be shared with the participants/learners prior to the start of the educational activity.

Relevant relationships, as defined by ANCC, are relationships with a commercial interest if the products or services of the commercial interest are related to the content of the educational activity.

- Relationships with any commercial interest of the individual’s spouse/partner may be relevant relationships and must be reported, evaluated, and resolved.
- Evidence of a relevant relationship with a commercial interest may include but is not limited to receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (stock and stock options, excluding diversified mutual funds), grants, contracts, or other financial benefit directly or indirectly from the commercial interest.
- Financial benefits may be associated with employment, management positions, independent contractor relationships, other contractual relationships, consulting, speaking, teaching, membership on an advisory committee or review panel, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received or expected from the commercial interest.

Is there an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest for yourself or spouse/partner? If yes, please click “Add a financial relationship” and complete the disclosure declaration form, accordingly.
