Submission Deadline:	31 October 2018
Author Notifications:	20 November 2018

ABSTRACT GUIDELINES

- All abstracts and video summaries must be submitted electronically via the abstract/video submission site: <https://tinyurl.com/IFFS2019WCAbstractSub>. Fax, email, and postal submissions will not be accepted.
- All presentations are to be in English (oral and poster).
- Authors assume complete responsibility for the data at the time of submission.
- The abstract must contain original work. If the abstract was published or presented at a meeting of another national or international scientific organization, it must contain all citations.
- Abstracts are expected to be approved or exempted by the appropriate Institutional Review Board (IRB) with jurisdiction or equivalent if any human subjects or any human materials were utilized.
- Commercial and financial relationships, that represent potential conflicts, must be disclosed through the online Abstract Submission program. Include each authors' first name, initial, last name, degree(s), and email address on their disclosure page. (An author on multiple abstracts need only complete one disclosure. All author names should be included at the time of submission. IFFS is not responsible for missing, excluded, or misspelled names that the submitting author leaves off or misspells during the submission process. All author names will be printed in the Abstract Supplement exactly how they are entered into the system by the submitting author.)
- To accommodate necessary Visa application deadlines, abstracts will be accepted on a rolling basis beginning on 30 September 2018.
- If you do not receive notification of the status of your abstract by 30 November 2018, email kbaumer@talley.com.
- All decisions by the Scientific Congress Committee are final. Dates and times of presentations will be assigned and cannot be altered.
- All authors agree to abide by IFFS policies pertaining to submission, publication, and presentation of abstracts.
- Submission of an abstract for consideration for presentation implies that the presenting author intends to attend the meeting to present his/her work.

There will be a late-breaking abstract period and those dates will be announced in the near future.

Accepted abstracts will be published in the IFFS Journal: Global Reproductive Health.
