SELECTION PROCESS FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION AND INTERNATIONAL FORUM

Proposals will be reviewed by the Convention Program Review Team (which includes members of The Arc's National Staff and Inclusion International's Staff) and selected based on the following guidelines:

- Presenter(s) have exemplary credentials or experience for presenting on the topic and can demonstrate an effective, interactive mode of presentation.
- Content demonstrates innovative and promising practices that are replicable and which reflect community based inclusive practices.
- Session embodies The Arc and Inclusion International's missions and content aligns with The Arc's Position Statements.

Proposal submission deadline is Friday, April 1, 2016. All proposals will be rated and ranked by the Convention Program Review Team and then selections will be made.

Speakers will be notified via email of final decisions during the week of May 2, 2016.

SELECTION PROCESS FOR SLI

Proposals will be reviewed by the members of the NCE Program Review Team (which includes members of The Arc's National Staff and chapter leaders) and selected based on the following guidelines:

- Presenter(s) have exemplary credentials or experience for presenting on the topic and can demonstrate an effective, interactive mode of presentation.
- Content demonstrates innovative and promising practices that are replicable and which reflect community based inclusive practices.
- Session embodies The Arc's Core Values and content aligns with The Arc's Position Statements.

Proposal submission deadline is Friday, March 18, 2016. All proposals will be rated, ranked, and selected by the review team.

Speakers will be notified via email of final decisions during the week of April 4, 2016.