

Formal Didactic Proposal

Only choose this submission type if you will be the main presenter in this session. These submissions will be reviewed under a scoring rubric and will receive official acceptances from the Annual Conference Committee (ACC).

- Typically, these sessions are 40 minutes in length. Please see Track Descriptions on the previous page to get more information about track lengths appropriate for your submission type.
- There will be 1-2 speakers only. (At ACC's discretion)
- Speakers will receive 1-night hotel, travel to and from the conference and complimentary main conference registration.

Formal Didactic Panel Proposal

Only choose this submission type if you will be the main presenter in this session. These submissions will be reviewed under a scoring rubric and will receive official acceptances from the Annual Conference Committee (ACC).

- Typically, these sessions are 40-60 minutes in length. Please see Track Descriptions on the previous page to get more information about track lengths appropriate for your submission type. (Session length will be decided by the ACC).
- There will be up to 3-4 speakers only. (At ACC's discretion)
- Speakers will receive complimentary main conference registration. No other benefits will be provided.

Formal Workshop Proposal

Only choose this submission type if you will be the main presenter in this session. These submissions will be reviewed under a scoring rubric and will receive official acceptances from the Annual Conference Committee (ACC).

- Sessions will be 90 minutes in length.
- There will be up to 4 speakers only.
- Speakers will receive 50% off of main conference registration. No other benefits will be provided.

Informal Topic Submission

Choose this submission type if you answer "yes" to any of the following questions:

Do you have a crucial topic that you think should be covered?

Have a unique session idea?

- These submissions will have no official acceptance or declination notifications sent; however, the ACC may reach out for further details about your submission.

Informal Topic with Speaker Submission

Choose this submission type if you answer "yes" to any of the following questions:

Do you have a crucial topic that you think should be covered?

Have a unique session idea?

Do you want to submit a proposal on someone's behalf and nominate them as a speaker?

- These submissions will have no official acceptance or declination notifications sent out, however the ACC may reach out for further details about your submission or speaker information.