TIP: If you need to exit your submission and return to complete it later, remember to click Save.

When you begin a new submission, you will be asked to fill out information regarding your abstract. You will see a series of “fill-in-the-blank” options as well as drop-list options to choose selections from, like shown here. On this page you will be asked to title your submission type. Below the drop-down list there is a description of each submission type to help guide you. When you have selected, please click “Submit.”

- Select Submission Type --
- Clinical Round Tables
- ✓ Panel Discussions
- Poster Sessions
- Spotlight Research Presentations
- Symposia
- Clinical Grand Rounds

Discussions (or debates) by informed individuals on a current important topic directly related to patient care, treatment, and/or the application/implementation of a treatment. Examples of topics for Clinical Round Tables include (but are not limited to) challenges/suggestions for treating a certain disorder or group of patients, application of a treatment protocol or type of treatment to a novel population, considerations in applying CBTs to marginalized communities and/or minority groups. Some topics may be appropriate for either Clinical Round Tables or Panel Discussions, and authors are invited to use their judgement in making this decision. Clinical Round Tables are organized by a moderator and include between three and six panelists with a range of experiences and attitudes. The total number of speakers may not exceed 7.

Panel Discussions

Discussions (or debates) by informed individuals on a current important topic that are conceptual in nature, rather than pertaining directly to clinical care. Examples of topics for panel discussions include (but are not limited to) supervision/training issues, ethical considerations in treatment or training, the use of technology in treatment, and cultural considerations in the application of CBTs. Some topics may be appropriate for either Clinical Round Tables or Panel Discussions, and authors are invited to use their judgement in making this decision. These are organized by a moderator and include between three and five panelists with a range of experiences and attitudes. The total number of speakers may not exceed 7.

Poster Sessions

One-on-one discussions between researchers, who display graphic representations of the results of their studies, and interested attendees. Because of the variety of interests and research areas of the ABCT attendees, between 1,200 and 1,400 posters are presented each year.

Each submission type has different field requirements, so once you choose a type, you cannot modify it. You must create a new submission to choose a different submission type.

About the Abstract Scorecard

The Abstract Scorecard® enables meeting planners to collect submissions and manage educational data online. It has been designed to fulfill the promise of our mission statement: Bring Your Event Together. To learn more about CadmiumCD's services, please contact us at info@cadmiumcd.com or call (410) 638-9239 or visit our website at www.CadmiumCD.com

The screenshot shows the 'ABCT 2022' registration page for a panelist profile. The header includes the event name, dates (November 17-20), location (New York City), and a tagline: 'Emergency & Disaster Preparedness and Response: Using Cognitive and Behavioral Science to Make an Impact'. Navigation links for 'Conference Details' and 'Technical Support' are present. The page title is 'Home / Panelist Profile'. A blue 'ID' icon is next to the 'PANELIST PROFILE' heading, and a 'Continue' button is in the top right. A grey instruction box states: 'Please complete as much of the information as you can and then press the 'Continue' button. The email address must be the panelist's email.' The form is organized into three columns: 'Personal Details', 'Contact Details', and 'Mailing Address'. Fields include: Prefix (dropdown), Office Phone, Address Line 1*, First Name*, Cell Phone, Address Line 2, Middle Initial, Fax, Address Line 3, Last Name*, Email Address*, City*, Suffix, State* (dropdown with 'No States or Provinces found'), and Zip*.

Further Clarification for Gathering of Submission Information

As the initial presenter submitting this form, you do not need to have all the information for your co-presenters!

- It would make most sense for the CHAIR of a symposium to enter in all the general information and the presenter information. Then, the symposium Chair can prompt co-presenters to log into the system and complete their sections.
- This removes the burden from the Chair for having all the necessary and personal information from colleagues and allows each presenter to sign their disclosure forms in a private manner.

Keywords vs. Categories

- Categories help speakers. These match up to reviewer areas of expertise and convention theme and help to:

- 1) assign appropriate reviewers and

- 2) minimize competition among similar presentations during timeslots in the convention schedule.

- Keywords help audiences.

Think of keywords as #HASHTAGS.

Keywords let audiences find things that fit their interests within the convention application.

Multiple keywords can be used to “tag” a presentation for audience interest (such as #child #anxiety #assessment).
