

Guidelines for the 2023 ARN Call for Volunteers

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with ARN in 2024! This Call for Volunteers will include all available volunteer opportunities for 2024. All application materials are due no later than September 30th, 2023 at Noon CT.

The 2024 Conference Planning Subcommittee will not be determined during this call, as it has its own separate call that took place earlier this year.*

About ARN

ARN is a diverse community of nearly 5,000 professional RNs working in acute care, inpatient rehabilitation units, long-term care hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, home health agencies, and academia. Led by a board of directors, ARN focuses on the challenges facing rehab patients, family members, and support systems—as well as rehabilitation care providers.

Our Mission

Promote and advance the rehabilitation nursing practice through professional development, advocacy, collaboration, and research to enhance the quality of life for those affected by disability and chronic illness.

Our Vision

Improve healthcare delivery through the integration of rehabilitation nursing concepts across the care continuum.

ARN Volunteer Position Descriptions

All volunteer position descriptions, requirements, and expectations can be found on the ARN Website. It is expected that all applicants thoroughly review the description(s) corresponding to the opportunity(ies) they are applying for, prior to submitting their application.
